Artisan Group™ Member Fine Line Pacific Teams up for Race For The Cure

Fine Line Pacific Employees Ashley Hell and Angie Gudjonson walked with nearly 50 others for Team Michelle.

Seattle, WA – July 21, 2010— Seattle , WA – Nearly 50 Fine Line Pacific and Kitchen Plus employees, along with thousands of others, braved the Seattle rain to participate in the June 6 Komen Puget Sound Race for the Cure. Although the rain was pouring down, everyone remained in good spirits knowing that they were supporting a great cause.

“It was amazing to see a community come together to join the fight against breast cancer in honor of friends, family and co-workers,” says Mike Birdwell, Fine Line Pacific Vice President of Sales & Marketing. “Fine Line Pacific was proud to be a part of an event that spreads hope for the future.”

Fine Line Pacific and Kitchen Plus joined “Team Michelle” with Michelle Millman, news reporter and anchor for KIRO 7. Millman, currently battling breast cancer, is a close friend of Mike Birdwell.

Seattle streets were filled with pink, including teams in pink ballet tutus, dogs with pink boas around their necks and cheerleaders along the route.

Artisan Group™

Artisan Group is the premier network of stone fabricators in North America. All Artisan Group members have achieved, or have begun the process to achieve full accreditation with the Marble Institute of America. The group is among the first granite fabricators in the world to be working towards this distinction. The Artisan Group’s extensive network allows the organization to offer the world’s best granite from the best sources around the globe. Utilizing the most technically advanced, automated shops in the industry, highly skilled craftsmen ensure that each and every installation meets exacting standards. From classic to exotic, it offers the most extensive array of color choices in the industry, and with short lead times and competitive pricing, Artisan Group granite countertops are closer than one might expect.
