FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Craft-Art and Artisan Group Team Up to Offer Quality Custom Wood Countertops North America's premier stone fabricators selected to exclusively distribute Craft-Art's Heritage Wood Countertop line.

Atlanta, GA – February 27, 2009 - Craft-Art Company, the national leader in custom, high-end, solid wood countertops is introducing its latest countertop line, Heritage Wood Countertops. The Atlanta, Georgia-based company will distribute its new line exclusively through Artisan Group, a nationwide network of premier countertop fabricators.

Craft-Art, a company who believes that service is as important as the quality of its products, has selected Artisan Group to expand its national network of strategic partners and to exclusively distribute Heritage Wood Countertops. The new partnership with Artisan Group furthers Craft-Art's national distribution network making it easy and convenient for customers to order quality, custom wood countertops for their home or business.

"We chose Artisan Group as the sole distributor of Heritage Wood Countertops because of their outstanding reputation for customer service and because they are innovative leaders in the countertop industry", said Dan Coats, Vice President of Corporate Accounts and Strategic Partnerships for Craft-Art. The Artisan Group members use the latest and most accurate fabrication tools and techniques and the fact that the group consists of more than 50 members spread across the United States and Canada creates an ideal distribution network for the Heritage Wood Countertop line.

"Partnering with Artisan Group will offer customers the utmost in quality, custom wood countertops and exceptional customer service," commented Coats. "We are extremely excited to be able to join forces with this leading group of fabricators."

Lately wood countertops have begun to regain popularity as more and more people are choosing wood countertops to enhance the beauty and to bring a more contemporary, yet warm look to their modern kitchens and baths. Solid wood is now becoming one of the most sought after materials for kitchen countertops, especially because it has many inherent properties that most other materials do not. When properly treated, solid wood surfaces are waterproof, heat resistant, stain resistant, sanitary, food safe and low maintenance.

The Heritage Wood line includes extensive choices from the world's finest domestic, exotic and reclaimed woods. To locate a Heritage Wood Countertop dealer near you, visit www.artisan-collection.com.
